PART 2000 - GENERAL

Subpart DDD - Memorandum of Understanding Between the Food Safety and Inspection Service and the Rural Development Administration

•2000.2751 General.

The Rural Development Administration (RDA) has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (Exhibit A) with the Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS) to act as a cognizant agency for indirect costing and training for the RDA. RDA does not possess the expertise in indirect cost determination, and therefore cannot act as a cognizant agency for some of these grantees. The programs which RDA presently administers and which require indirect costing and training services are as follows: Rural Business Enterprise Grants and Television Demonstration Grants, Nonprofit National Corporations Loans and Grants, Technical Assistance and Training Grants, and Solid Waste Management Grants, and may administer other additional grant programs in the future. RDA field offices which have a need to utilize the services of FSIS under this agreement, must contact the appropriate RDA National Office program division.
