PART 2063 - EMPLOYEE RELATIONS AND SERVICES

SUBPART H - EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES AND CONDUCT

§ 2063.351 Purpose.

(a) This subpart prescribes the policies, procedures and the standards on employees' responsibility and conduct for the Department of Agriculture's (USDA), Rural Development employees. Although it specifically addresses many ethics and conduct requirements, it is not intended to cover all possible situations.

(b) Each Rural Development employee is required to give faithful service to the public. This specifically includes the requirement that each employee knows and observes the rules on employee responsibilities and conduct stated in this Subpart.

(c) This Subpart is not to be construed as all-inclusive. Employees also are subject to:

- (1) Federal statutes;
- (2) USDA Administrative Regulations;
- (3) Other RD Instructions; and
- (4) Regulations of outside authority, including but not limited to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and the General Services Administration.

(d) Violation of any provision of this Subpart and/or any other regulation or procedure may result in consideration for disciplinary or adverse action.

§ 2063.352 References.

This Instruction must be used in conjunction with:

- (a) Title 5, U.S.C., Chapter 73, "Suitability, Security, and Conduct;"

---

DISTRIBUTION: W, S, A, L and all Employees Personnel General

RD Instruction 2063-H
§ 2063.352 (Con.)

(b) Executive Orders 12674 and 12731, "Principles of Ethical Conduct for Government Officers and Employees;"

(c) Title 5 CFR, Part 735, "Employee Responsibilities and Conduct;"

(d) Title 5 CFR, Part 2635, "Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch" (hereinafter referred to as "Standards"); and

(e) Title 5 CFR, Part 8301, "Supplemental Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Department of Agriculture" (hereinafter referred to as "USDA Supplement"). Employees shall adhere to these and other related standards, policies, and regulations promulgated by USDA and its agencies.

§ 2063.353 Policy.

It is Rural Development's policy that all employees:

(a) Maintain high standards of honesty, integrity, and impartiality;

(b) Adhere to the rules set forth in this instruction, as well as all instructions referenced in section 2063.352 of this instruction;

(c) Comply with lawful supervisory direction; and

(d) Comply with work-related laws, regulations, and policies.

§ 2063.354 Definitions.

(a) Agency. Rural Development, a mission area under USDA.

(b) Ethics Advisor (EA). Employees responsible for providing ethics advice and guidance.

(c) Personally Identifiable Information (PII). Any information about an individual maintained by an agency, including, but not limited to, financial transactions, medical history, or criminal history, and information which can be used to distinguish or trace an individual's identity, such as their name, social security number, date and place of birth, mother's maiden name, biometric records, etc. including any other personal information which is linked or linkable to an individual.

§ 2063.354 (Con)

(d) Office of Ethics (OE). Office within USDA Departmental Administration responsible for administering ethics regulations and statutes governing employee conduct; conducting public confidential financial disclosure reporting programs; developing and implementing supplemental ethics policies; providing advice and assistance to USDA employees; training employees on all ethics statutes, regulations, and policies.

(e) Supervisor. An employee having authority to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees; or having responsibility to direct them, adjust their grievances, or effectively recommend such action if, in connection with the foregoing, the exercise of authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature but requires the use of independent judgment.

§ 2063.355 Responsibilities.

(a) Agency and Human Resources are responsible for:

- (1) Ensuring that every current employee is provided with a current copy of this instruction within 90 days of its issuance; and
- (2) Ensuring that every new employee is furnished a copy of this instruction at the time of appointment, either electronically or by hard copy.

(b) Supervisors are responsible for:

- (1) Maintaining high standards of ethical conduct. They must become familiar with and comply with the requirements in this instruction, the Standards, and the USDA Supplement; and
- (2) Responding to employee questions on matters covered by this instruction, the Standards, and the USDA Supplement, and/or referring employee ethics questions to the USDA Office of Ethics or an appropriate EA.

§ 2063.356 Delegation of Authority.

Unless otherwise stated, any authorities delegated in this instruction may be redelegated to a level of management that has the experience and/or training to administer the authority.

§ 2063.357 Employee Notification.

Every employee must be provided with this Instruction and information on where to direct questions regarding its content, either electronically or by hard copy.

§ 2063.358 Prohibited Activities.

Employees are prohibited from:

- (a) Engaging in criminal, infamous, dishonest, immoral, or notoriously disgraceful conduct, or other conduct prejudicial to the Government at any time.

(j) Engaging in sexual misconduct including, but not limited to, unwelcomed sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when submission to or rejection of this conduct explicitly or implicitly affects an individual's employment, unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

(k) Failing to take appropriate action on complaints or proven acts of sexual harassment (this applies to supervisor or managers who know or should have known of those acts).

(l) Displaying discourteous conduct or disrespect to a coworker, another Federal employee, or a member of the public when acting in an official capacity.

(m) Failing to wear or use specified safety equipment, or failing to report obvious unsafe conditions while on official duty.

(n) Making threats against other employees, members of the public, on Government property.

§ 2063.359 Attendance and Leave.

(a) Every employee must observe designated duty hours and be punctual in reporting for work and returning from lunch periods. Tardiness can result in employees being placed in a non-pay status for unauthorized absence; i.e., absence without leave (AWOL).

(b) Every employee must normally obtain advance authorization for any absence from duty. Approval of leave is a discretionary matter reserved to the supervisor. The use of leave is not a right afforded to an employee (except rights afforded to disabled veterans), but is conditioned on the needs of Rural Development service. When absence from duty results from illness or an emergency, an employee is required to notify his or her supervisor or other appropriate/designated person as soon as possible. When an employee fails to properly receive approval from his or her supervisor, the absence may be charged as AWOL.

(c) Leave is administered in accordance with 5 CFR Part 630 and applicable USDA, Rural Development, and staff office policies.

§ 2063.360 Sale of Personal Property.

(a) Personal property offered for sale by USDA may be purchased by employees only when the sale of such property is based upon competitive bids.

(b) No purchase may be made by an employee who:

(1) Was formerly accountable for the property;

(2) Formerly used the property; or

(3) Was in any way connected with its condemnation, declaration as excess, or sale.

(c) The above prohibitions do not apply in the following situations:

(1) Surplus perishable products may be sold to employees at the best price obtainable in quantities not exceeding the needs of their immediate households;

(2) Surplus Government property may be sold to employees when it is being sold to the general public; and

(3) Special clothing and other articles or personal equipment purchased for the exclusive use of and fitted to an individual employee may, when not otherwise usable by Rural Development and in all respects are surplus to the needs of the Government, be sold to such employees at the best price obtainable in the event of their separation from USDA or permanent assignment to duties not requiring such clothing or equipment.

§ 2063.361 Use of Government Vehicles.

(a) Every employee is prohibited, unless specifically authorized by the agency in accordance with RD Instruction 2018-G, from storing Government-owned or Government-leased motor vehicles at or near their private residence or at other unauthorized locations including, but not limited to, homes of relatives, friends or from using such vehicles for transportation between their residence and place of employment.

(b) No employee shall use Government-owned or Government-leased vehicles to transport unauthorized passengers.

(c) Every employee is required to wear seat belts whenever riding as an operator or as a passenger in a truck, automobile, or other passenger vehicle in the performance of official duties or while on official time.

(d) Unless authorized to do so in the performance of official duties, every employee is prohibited from using Government-owned or Government-leased vehicles to transport firearms or explosives.

(e) Employees must possess valid operators' licenses to drive government vehicles.

§ 2063.362 Foreign Assignments.

An employee serving on foreign assignment must fully comply with Department of State's regulations governing the post to which he or she is assigned.

§ 2063.363 Computers and Telecommunications Equipment.

(a) Unless an employee has specific authorization, he or she is prohibited from accessing any USDA or Federal government electronic, laser, or magnetic system of storing information, or computer software, not expressly identified for public or general access. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to computers of all types, floppy diskettes, compact or laser discs, magnetic tapes, transmittal of chain e-mails, and storage of music files. Employees without specific authorization may be subject to disciplinary or adverse action regardless of whether they use, damage, or make alterations to the stored information.

(b) Every employee must adhere to the requirements of Departmental Manual 3525-000, "Internet and E-Mail Security" and other policies and regulations involving the use of information technology, telecommunications resources, and equipment owned and leased by USDA. Every employee must comply with acceptable use policies for telecommunication equipment as contained in DR 3300-001, "Telecommunications and Internet Services and Use", and in Departmental Regulation 1710-001, "Interception and Monitoring of Telephone and Non-telephone Conversations."

§ 2063.364 Personally Identifiable Information.

(a) Every employee who has access to PII of other employees, contractors, or the general public through the course of his or her employment at USDA is required to safeguard and protect such information from unauthorized disclosure.

(b) Every employee is required to immediately report any known or suspected breach of the PII safeguards or policies, or actual unauthorized disclosure of PII to his or her supervisor.

(c) Employees must properly dispose of PII by shredding or placing in sensitive/confidential disposal bins.

§ 2063.365 Retaliation and Reprisal.

No employee may retaliate against another, by word or action, for filing complaints, for filing grievances under either the negotiated or administrative grievance system, for filing complaints of discrimination, for assisting the investigators of Rural Development, or for engaging in any other protected activity.

To maintain a positive work environment in which conflicts are handled appropriately, and reprisal is less likely to occur, managers are responsible for:

- (a) Setting expectations for workplace behavior and interactions by demonstrating the type of behavior that is expected and tolerated;
- (b) Helping employees resolve differences by using respectful conflict resolutions strategies, and refraining from taking sides;
- (c) Being accountable for reprisal and other inappropriate/unlawful workplace behavior;
- (d) Staying current on Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) policies and respecting the rights of employees to file EEO complaints.
- (e) Contacting the servicing Human Resources Office and/or EA for assistance with interpretations and violations of this regulation.

§ 2063.366 Reporting Misconduct.

- (a) Every employee is required to report actions by other employees that they know, or have a reasonable basis to believe, are violations of law or regulation. A report may be made to the USDA Office of Inspector General, the employee's supervisor, or any appropriate Rural Development management official.
- (b) Violations include, but are not limited to:
  - (1) Fraud, waste, and abuse of Government resources;
  - (2) Criminal activity of any kind;
  - (3) Violations of Federal personnel rules;

§ 2063.366(b) (Con)

- (4) Sexual harassment;
- (5) Prohibited personnel practices; and
- (6) Violations of this instruction, the Standards, or the USDA Supplement.

§ 2063.367 Other Miscellaneous Conduct Provisions.

(a) Fiscal Responsibility. Any money, property, or other item of value received by or coming into the custody of an employee in connection with the discharge of his or her duties must be accounted for, deposited, appropriately secured, properly maintained, or otherwise disposed of in accordance with established procedures. Fiscal responsibility includes the proper use of Government-issued credit cards and the timely payment of claims.

(b) Cooperation with Oversight Agencies. Every employee is required under Subchapter A., Part 5, Regulations, Investigation, and Enforcement (Rule V) to provide OPM, the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB), and the Office of Special Counsel (OSC), and their authorized representatives, all information and testimony in regard to matters arising under laws, rules, and regulations administered by OPM, MSPB, and OSC, the disclosure of which is not otherwise prohibited by law or regulation.

(c) Cooperation with Rural Development Investigations. Every employee is required to provide all information he or she possesses to authorized representatives of USDA when called upon, if the inquiry relates to official matters and the information is obtained in the course of employment or as a result of relationships incident to such employment. Such activities include participating in interviews requested by authorized representatives of USDA and furnishing signed, sworn/affirmed statements to the authorized representatives. Failure to respond to requests for information, including the furnishing of signed sworn/affirmed statements in a timely manner, or failure to appear as a witness in official proceedings may result in disciplinary action. (Nothing set forth herein shall be deemed to infringe upon an employee's right to invoke the protection of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution with respect to self-incrimination in a criminal investigation or for a bargaining unit employee to request union representation in accordance with his or her rights under 5 USC section 7114 (a)(2)(B) - Weingarten Rights.)

(d) Details, Reassignments and Transfers. Supervisors have the authority to transfer, detail, and reassign an employee whenever necessary to meet operational needs, subject to applicable regulations and collective bargaining agreement provisions. Failure to accept a transfer, detail, or reassignment may result in an adverse action including separation of the employee.

(e) Firearms and Weapons. In accordance with 18 USC section 930 and its exceptions, every employee is prohibited from knowingly possessing or causing the presence of a firearm or other dangerous weapons in a Federal facility (i.e. a building or parking lot or part thereof, owned, or leased by the Federal government, where Federal employees are regularly present for the purpose of performing their official duties), or in a Federal court facility.

(f) Prohibited Personnel Practices. Every employee who has the authority to take, direct others to take, recommend, or approve any personnel action (Prohibited Personnel Practices, 5 USC section 2302 (b)), is prohibited from:

- (1) Discriminating on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability, marital status, or political affiliation;
- (2) Soliciting or considering employment recommendations based on factors other than personal knowledge or records of job-related abilities or characteristics;
- (3) Coercing the political activity of any person;
- (4) Deceiving or willfully obstructing any person from competing for employment;
- (5) Influencing any person to withdraw from job competition for the purpose of improving or injuring the prospects of any other person for employment;
- (6) Granting any preference or advantage not authorized by law, rule, or regulation to improve or injure the prospects of any particular person for employment;

§ 2063.367(f) (Con)

- (7) Engaging in nepotism (hiring, promoting, or advancing relatives);
- (8) Taking reprisal for whistleblowing;
- (9) Taking reprisal for the exercise of an appeal right;
- (10) Discriminating based on personal conduct which does not adversely affect the performance of the employee, applicant, or others;
- (11) Violating veteran's preference requirements; or
- (12) Violating any law, rule, or regulation implementing or directly concerning merit system principles.

§ 2063.368 Disciplinary or Adverse Action.

(a) A violation of any of the responsibilities and conduct standards contained in this instruction may be cause for disciplinary or adverse action.

(b) Disciplinary or adverse action shall be effected in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

§ 2063.369 - 2063.400 [Reserved].
