COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN MASSACHUSETTS 7TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

USDA Rural Development (RD) operates over fifty financial assistance programs for a variety of rural applications. The Southern New England jurisdiction is comprised of Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The Central State office is located in Amherst, MA and Massachusetts Area Offices are located in Hadley, Holden and West Wareham, MA. Jurisdiction wide direct loans, guaranteed loans and grants totaled $491,899,272 in Fiscal year 2015.

Limited eligibility in district according to federal guidelines

LENDING SERVICES

USDA RD provides direct and guaranteed loan and loan guarantee services to eligible individuals, communities, and businesses that are located in rural communities (i.e. typically less than 50,000 although some thresholds are less depending on the program). USDA RD loan services are aimed at bolstering rural economic development activity, housing opportunities and community infrastructure development that improve the economic prosperity of rural communities and the people that live there.

GRANT PROGRAMS

USDA RD grant programs are aimed at individuals, communities and businesses. These programs are intended to benefit rural communities through investments in business development, technical assistance and infrastructure improvement that is not otherwise available through commercial credit. Grants are competitive with varying eligibility dependent upon the program. USDA RD works with individuals, State, local and Indian tribal governments, private and nonprofit organizations, and user-owned cooperatives.
