!! NEWSFLASH !!

MFIS/MINC

Manager and Owners take note! As you may be aware, we are experiencing difficulties with MFIS and MINC and slow response times. If you are unable to transmit payments or tenant certifications timely and an overage or late fee is assessed, the Agency will consider this “circumstance beyond your control”. Therefore, the Agency will automatically waive the overage and/or late fees, and adjust your account accordingly, for those transactions due by November 10, 2012.

This policy will be in place for 3 additional days after the system is again functioning satisfactorily.
