USDA Rural Development Hosting Informational Meetings in Aug. and Sept. for Multi-Family Housing Managers

USDA Rural Development staff will be hosting informational meetings for multi-family housing managers of USDA-financed properties during the last week of August and first two weeks in September.

During the meetings there will be updates on various issues such as the Improper Payment Information Act, budgets, file documentation requirements and information presented by Housing and Urban Development (HUD) staff.

There will be four meetings throughout the state this year. We ask that you please register for the location of your choice no later than August 22nd, at the following link: <http://doodle.com/arqzkvhff5yvwwad>.

If you have suggestions for topics to be discussed, please register as soon as possible and use the comment field in your registration so we can incorporate those topics into the agenda if feasible.
