

Statement from USDA Rural Development regarding Eligible Area Review for City of Adrian, Michigan.

After conducting a thorough review of population data, department regulations, relevant statutes and taking public input, USDA Rural Development has concluded that the City of Adrian remains ineligible for Single Family Housing programs. We thank our partners and stakeholders for their comments and input and will provide timely public notification if additional information or changes in the legal and regulatory environment warrant reconsideration of this finding.