READ PROCEDURE – DISCUSS IN STAFF CONFERENCE – KEEP PROCEDURE MANUAL UP TO DATE
Chapter 5:

Paragraph 5.2 A, removed language regarding obtaining traditional credit. Reference was made to guidance on the same subject in Chapter 8.

Updated the guidance on data threshold tolerance in Paragraph 5.3 G to match the language in the upcoming Chapter 10 revisions.

Paragraph 5.3 J, removed language requiring lenders to submit interest rate lock dates. The revised Form RD 3555-21 eliminates the field for rate lock dates.

Chapter 6:

Chapter 6: Loan Purposes to include updated regulation per the single close construction Final Rule and include the Repair and Rehabilitation feature.

Updated Paragraph 6.2 B on repair and rehabilitation and refer to Chapter 12 for additional guidance.

Paragraph 6.2 C., “Closing Costs” to include regulatory language removing seller concession limits for single close construction loans.

In order to coincide with 3555.102(h) regarding seller concessions, “loan amount” was changed to “property’s sale price.”

Added a bullet in Paragraph 6.2C to address eligible loan purposes for Single-Close Construction loans.

Paragraph 6.2 D., to clarify eligible refinance purposes, identify the types of loans that may be refinanced, rearranged, renumbered paragraphs for clarity and removed redundant language.

Clarified that the guarantee fee may be added over original loan amount with a streamline refinance.

Paragraph 6.2 D (a)(3)(iii), to clarify a deceased borrower may be removed from a streamline assist refinance transaction.

Removed paragraph “Additional Guidance for Existing Direct 502 Loans” and moved it to Attachment B of the chapter.

Paragraph 6.2 D(b), edited for clarity under loan application documentation.

Clarified Lender and Agency requirements in the submission process in Paragraph 6.2D(c).
RD HANDBOOK CHANGES

INSERT RD HB-1-3555

(WSAL)

Chapter 6:

Replaced the fax number to the NFAOC with the email address in Paragraph 6.2D(g).

Removed language in section 6.3 “Loan Discount Points” restricting discount points to 2% for non-streamline refinance transactions to concur with guidance throughout the chapter.

Updated section 6.3 “Seller Contributions” to include regulatory language removing seller concession limits for single close construction loans.

In 6.3, clarified that the 6% seller contributions are based on sale price and not applicable to construction loans.

Attachment 6-A was added to summarize the differences in the refinance options.

Attachment 6-B was added to provide additional guidance on refinancing Section 502 Direct Loans.

Chapter 7:

Removed language regarding the maximum interest rate cap. The Single-Close final rule published July 22, 2019, eliminates the maximum interest rate cap for SFHGLP loans. The language in section 7.3B has been updated accordingly.

Chapter 9:

The revisions to this chapter provide lenders clarification and guidance on evaluating acceptable income types and timeframes. It allows lenders additional flexibility in determining applicant’s stable and dependable income.

Paragraph 9.3 B, Added a bullet to provide guidance on the use of income that will not continue for the entire ensuing 12 months for annual income calculations.

Paragraph 9.3 E:

Added bullet to outline the information required in paystubs/earnings statements for use as a verification source.

Added bullets that specify requirements for information in W-2 forms and required tax return documents for self-employed applicants for income verification purposes.

Clarified language pertaining to self-employed applicant’s required income documentation and defined sharp increases and decreases in self-employment income that must be carefully evaluated.

(CON.)
Chapter 9.3 E:

Clarified when business federal income tax returns are required.

Clarified language and formatting to the statement that IRS transcripts are required for all adult household members with the exception of full-time students.

Added language to address incomplete applications when the lender cannot obtain form IRS 4506-T for household members without a Social Security number or other acceptable identification number.

Paragraph 9.8:

Added bullets to define sharp increases and decreases that must be evaluated when used as stable and dependable income.

Added language to clarify the lender’s responsibility in their determination of stable and dependable income.

Paragraph 9.11:

Added this paragraph to clarify the use of time spent in education as substitute for required repayment income timeframes to allow only education where specified certification can be obtained.

Attachment 9-A:

Made revisions to relax the required timeframes for certain type of incomes used in repayment income calculations from two years to one year.

Added guidance on additional income types that were previously not included in the handbook.

Provided additional guidance for documentation source options.

Attachment 9-F:

Clarified GUS Accept Full Documentation loan files are not manually underwritten loan files.
