

USDA Rural Development Electric Loan and Loan Guarantee Program

States	Senators	Representatives	Recipient	Loan Amount	Project Description
ND SD	John Hoeven (ND) Kevin Cramer (ND) John Thune (SD) Mike Rounds (SD)	Kelly Armstrong (ND At Large) Dusty Johnson (SD At Large)	Mor-Gran-Sou Electric Cooperative	$33,000,000	This Rural Development investment will be used to connect 1,041 consumers and build and improve 202 miles of line. This loan includes $722,000 in smart grid technologies. Mor-Gran-Sou Electric is headquartered in Flasher, North Dakota and serves 10,025 consumers over 3,714 miles of line in six counties in North Dakota and one county in South Dakota.
SD NE	John Thune (SD) Mike Rounds (SD) Deb Fischer (NE) Pete Ricketts (NE)	Dusty Johnson (SD At Large) Adrian Smith (NE 03)	Lacreek Electric Association	$13,661,000	This Rural Development investment will be used to connect 257 consumers and build and improve 327 miles of line. This loan includes $551,244 in smart grid technologies. Lacreek Electric is headquartered in Martin, South Dakota and provides service to 6,812 consumers over 3,177 miles of line in five counties in southwestern South Dakota and one county in Nebraska.
SD	John Thune Mike Rounds	Dusty Johnson (At Large)	Butte Electric Cooperative	$9,198,000	This Rural Development investment will be used to connect 738 consumers and build and improve 71 miles of line. This loan includes $864,220 in smart grid technologies. Butte Electric is headquartered in Newell, South Dakota and provides service to 6,524 consumers over 1,385 miles of line in three counties in the western portion of South Dakota.
SD	John Thune Mike Rounds	Dusty Johnson (At Large)	Kingsbury Electric Cooperative	$2,122,000	This Rural Development investment will be used to connect 120 consumers and build and improve 14 miles of line. This loan includes $74,680 in smart grid technologies. Kingsbury Electric is headquartered in De Smet, South Dakota and provides service to 1,092 consumers over 672 miles of line in five counties in east central South Dakota.
SD	John Thune Mike Rounds	Dusty Johnson (At Large)	West River Electric Association	$46,510,000	This Rural Development investment will be used to connect 4,319 consumers, and build and improve 362 miles of line. This loan includes $1,527,000 in smart grid technologies. West River Electric is headquartered in Wall, South Dakota, and serves the needs of more than 18,482 members over 2,657 miles in Haakon, Jackson, Meade, Pennington, Oglala Lakota and Ziebach counties, all in the State of South Dakota.
Total Amount:				$104,491,000	