

Agency-Approved Stacking Order

Intermediaries, approved Opt-Out Certified Packagers, approved Non-Certified Packagers, and Self-Help entities are to use this Agency-approved stacking order when submitting loan application packages to the Agency for Phase 1 via eForms. While Handbook-1-3550 guidance should be followed regarding which items to submit for an application, based on that applicant's unique situation, this stacking order checklist identifies how those documents should be organized for submittal to the Agency. For a listing of documents needed packaged loan applications submissions, please refer to Handbook-1-3550, Attachment 3-A.

Phase 1 – Application Submission via eForms

The application and applicable accompanying documentation must be grouped together and organized as shown below. Please note:

- Each bolded header (e.g. Application Processing, Eligibility-Income, etc.) must be a separate attachment for grouping the applicable items listed below.
 - Each attachment will be named the header title followed by the applicant's last name (e.g. ApplicationProcessing-Jones, EligibilityIncome-Jones, etc.).
- Verify that all applicable documents are included, fully completed, signed (as needed), and readable prior to submitting to Rural Development.
- Incomplete application submissions, application submissions that don't follow the stacking order, and/or application submissions not received via eForms will be returned.

Application Processing.

- ☐ A copy of the Attachment 3-J, Checklist of Items to Accompany the Uniform Residential Loan Application, with all the items applicable for the applicant(s) marked and included in the package.
- ☐ Fully completed Form RD 410-4, Uniform Residential Loan Application (URLA). There are three ways to complete this form: Import the industry standard form 1003, complete within eForms, or export the form, complete offline, and then import the completed form into eForms. The eForms submission of the URLA constitutes a signature.
