Dear [ insert applicant last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]:

Information obtained while processing your application for Rural Development loan assistance indicates that your adjusted annual household income exceeds the maximum low-income limit for this area, which is $(insert the applicable income limit). The following options are available to you in obtaining housing:

1. Sale of Real Estate Owned (REO) Property. This is the sale of a property that is owned by the Government. Rural Development acquires title to properties periodically and welcomes you to visit www.dawsonsmanagement.com (click on USDA properties) to view the changing availability of properties.
2. A transfer and assumption of an existing Rural Development loan. You may assume the unpaid balance of a loan from a Rural Development borrower whose property is for sale. Equity or repairs would need to be paid for with cash provided by you.
3. A Guaranteed Rural Housing loan. If you wish to learn more about this program and obtain a list of participating lenders, please contact this office at (insert field office address).
4. Other credit. You may wish to pursue financing through a private lending institution.

Applications for the purchase of an REO property or loan transfer and assumption are given funding priority. If you are interested in a specific REO property or loan transfer and believe you can meet the conditions outlined above, you should notify this office within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If we do not hear from you within the specified time frame, your application will be withdrawn. Please refer to Attachment 1-C in this letter regarding your ability to have the decision further reviewed.

Sincerely,

( insert name of the Loan Originator )

[ insert applicant(s) first/mi/last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]
[ insert applicant(s) street/post office address ]
[ insert city, state, and zip code ]

Dear [ insert applicant last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]:

Rural Development cannot continue to process your application at this time due to the lack of availability of funds for households within your income category. However, based on a review of your verified credit and financial information, you have been determined eligible for loan services through this Agency. The approximate waiting period before funds may be available to consider your loan request is ( insert approximate days/months funds will be available ).

Once funding is available to consider your loan request, we will notify you with further instructions. You may be asked to provide the Agency with updated information so that we can confirm your continued eligibility.

Please be advised that Rural Development has a homeownership education requirement for first-time homebuyers. If you are a first-time homebuyer, you will be required to provide documentation of completion of an acceptable homeownership education course. Documentation must be in the form of a certificate of completion or letter from the provider of the homeownership education. Our office can assist you in locating an acceptable provider. We strongly encourage that applicants look into and take the training early in the process. In the meantime, do not incur debts for items such as a building site, or the repair, purchase, or construction of a home; there is no guarantee that the Agency will extend you financing.

If you are planning to assume the unpaid balance of a loan from an existing Rural Development borrower or purchase a Government Real Estate Owned property, you should advise this office. These transactions can be processed without delay. You may also wish to discuss eligibility requirements for the Guaranteed Rural Housing loan.

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Federal Trade Commission. If a person believes he or she was denied assistance in violation of this law, they should contact the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in real estate related transactions, or in the terms or conditions of such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin. The federal agency that is responsible for enforcing this law is the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. If a person believes that they have been discriminated against in violation of this law, they should contact the U. S. Dear [ insert applicant last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]:

Thank you for the opportunity to consider your request for Rural Development assistance. In reviewing your request, we considered all information submitted to the Agency and the regulations that govern the assistance for which you applied. After careful review, we regret to inform you that we were unable to take favorable action on your request. The specific reasons for our decision are as follows:

(The following items should be included in each adverse decision letter and can be presented in different formats depending upon the type of assistance requested and reasons for denial):

- Specific reasons for the decision;
- Regulatory basis (CFR citation) for the decision;
- If applicable, a statement of any evidence considered in making the decision such as credit reports, financial statements, etc.;
- If applicable, a statement of any issues presented by the customer such as those discussed during any meetings or phone conversations.

If one of the above reasons included an unacceptable credit history, please note that a tri-merge credit report on you was obtained from Equifax Mortgage Solutions, 4300 Westown Parkway, Suite 200, West Des Moines, IA 50266; telephone (800) 333-0037. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from Equifax and dispute the accuracy or completeness of the report directly to Equifax. While the report was provided by Equifax, the decision to deny your request for assistance was made by this Agency and not Equifax.

Dear [ insert applicant last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]:

You have been determined eligible for Rural Development financing for construction of a modest single family home under the Self-Help program. Eligibility is based on income and financial information that is verified within 180 days of loan approval and closing. Loan approval and closing are subject to the continued eligibility of the applicant and the availability of loan funds. Changes in your financial status (income and expenses) must be reported to Rural Development, and may affect your eligibility and the amount of loan for which you qualify. Rural Development has determined that you qualify for a Self-Help loan up to the amount of $_____in_____County.

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Federal Trade Commission. If a person believes he or she was denied assistance in violation of this law, they should contact the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

Dear [ insert applicant(s) last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]:

After carefully analyzing the appraisal of the property located at _____, we are unable to take favorable action on your request for Rural Development services. The specific reasons for our decision are:

[insert the specific reasons associated with the appraisal for the adverse action]

If the aforementioned reason for denial was because the requested loan amount was greater than the appraised value, you may want to look into the following options:

- 1) Adjust the sales contract price.
- 2) If the sales contract falls through, a new Form RD 1944-59, Certificate of Eligibility, good for 120 days, may be issued by contacting your Local Office.
- 3) Dispute the appraisal by presenting any new, objective information regarding the subject property, for the Agency's consideration (e.g., incorrect or incomplete information was used for square footage, number of bedrooms, number of bathrooms, garage size, upgrades, repaired or renovated conditions, etc.). Comparable sales which are different from those used in the appraisal will not be considered.

You should inform the Local Office of which option you will exercise, and present any new information for our consideration, within 15 days from the date of this letter. Please submit the information in writing to the Local Office at [insert office address and office email resource account, if applicable.] If you have any other questions concerning this decision, you may contact the Local Office at [insert office phone number, address, and office email resource account, if applicable] to request a meeting with this office within 15 days from the date of this letter. You may also bring a representative or legal counsel with you.

If additional information is submitted to dispute the appraisal, Rural Development will perform a Technical Appraisal Review. The results of that review will be provided to you in writing, once completed.

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. Dear [ insert applicant last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]:

At your request, a Technical Appraisal Review has been completed by Rural Development appraisal staff, for the property you wish to purchase at [insert address from appraisal report]. As a result of this review we have determined the Appraisal Report and its value estimate are acceptable, as required by Rural Development regulations and appraisal industry standards.

As a result of this determination, we are unable to take favorable action on your loan request. The specific reason(s) for our decision are:

[Insert "The loan amount requested is not supported by the appraised value of the property" and/or any other specific reason associated with the appraisal for the adverse action.]

The determination that the Appraisal Report is acceptable is not appealable in accordance with 7 CFR Section 1900.53(c). However, you may consider the following options:

1. Adjust the sales contract price.
2. If the sales contract falls through, a new Form RD 1944-59, Certificate of Eligibility, good for 120 days, may be issued by contacting your Local Office.
3. Seek mediation and/or request a hearing with National Appeals Division (NAD) regarding the Agency's determination that the loan amount requested is not supported by the appraised value of the property (i.e., inadequate security). See Attachment 1-B, An Appealable Adverse Decision.

You should inform the Local Office if you intend to exercise option 1 or 2 within 15 days from the date of this letter. See Attachment 1-B for instructions and specific timeframes for requesting mediation or appeal (option 3). [Include Attachment 1-B from Chapter 1]

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. Dear [ insert applicant(s) last name(s) (Mr., Mrs., Ms.) ]:

Rural Development has conducted a pre-qualification review using a profile credit report (obtained at no cost to you) as well as unverified information you provided either orally or in writing. During this informal and unbinding review, items that raised concerns or need clarification were noted.

To qualify for program assistance, applicants must meet basic eligibility requirements that include, but are not limited to, acceptable credit history and loan repayment ability. We would like the opportunity to discuss with you the information obtained through the pre-qualification review. We ask that you call our office at [insert office phone number] within 15 days of the date on this letter.

You are welcome to submit a Uniform Residential Loan Application regardless of the issues discussed during the phone conversation.

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Federal Trade Commission. If a person believes he or she was denied assistance in violation of this law, they should contact the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in real estate related transactions, or in the terms or conditions of such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin. The federal agency that is responsible for enforcing this law is the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. If a person believes that they have been discriminated against in violation of this law, they should contact the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Washington, D.C. 20410 or call (800) 669-9777.

Sincerely,
