1. Introduction

The Higher Blends Infrastructure Incentive Program (HBIIP) is a new program that will expand the availability of domestic ethanol and biodiesel by incentivizing the expansion of sales of renewable fuels. To accompany the program, a new online grant application system has been developed to be used in applying for participation in the HBIIP grant program.

The HBIIP grant program includes infrastructure projects for fueling station companies and fuel distribution facility companies.

2. Overview

2.1. Purpose

The purpose of this document is to provide company employees and third-party grant writers instructions for completing the online HBIIP grant application.

2.2. Assumptions

The content of this document has been developed based on its general purpose and the following assumptions:

- This document is not intended to be a comprehensive set of instructions. It, along with the features provided in the online application system should collectively provide applicants the information they need to complete and submit a grant application.
- Completion of the online grant application will not be started prior to the user reading this document.
- The company has reviewed all resources provided in the HBIIP Notice of Funding Availability published on May 5, 2020 and December 18, 2020 in the Federal Register. This includes an explanation of the Grant Period.

2.3. Additional Support

In the event that questions or clarification is needed to complete the online grant application, you can contact the HBIIP Program Office by emailing energyprograms@usda.gov.

3. Preparing to Apply

3.1. What will you need

Completing the online grant application will require the following information. When selecting an Applicant Type, the appropriate should be reflective of your company at this time. For example, if your company currently consists of 10 or fewer fueling stations, but your project will increase that number of stations beyond 10, “Owner of 10 or fewer fueling stations” should be selected for the Applicant Type.

- Identification of an Applicant Type to describe the company. Below are the possible options:
  - Owner of 10 or fewer fueling stations.
  - Owner of more than 10 fueling stations.
  - Fleet fueling station facility/facilities.
  - Fuel distribution facility (terminal operation, midstream partner, heating oil distributor).
- Information to describe your company and employees/third-party grant writers
  - A taxpayer Identification number, DUNS Number, and SAM/CAGE Code
  - Company address.
  - Congressional district (where the company is located).
  - An indication if your company has been delinquent on a federal debt and supporting documents to explain the debt and delinquency.
  - Contact information for an individual, should the agency require additional information.
  - Information describing the individual “authorized representative“ responsible for validating the information included in your online grant application.
  - Information regarding your state’s intent to review the application under Executive Order 12372.
  - A proposed start and end date and brief description for your applicable infrastructure project.
  - Fueling station information (address, contact, congressional district, priority scoring criteria, historical/projected data, and proposed activities) for each station included in your project (Only for fueling station projects).
  - Fuel distribution facility information (address, contact, congressional district and fuel data) for the facility included in your project (Only for fuel distribution facility infrastructure projects).
  - Project financial information (budget costs and estimated funding).
  - Attachments.
    - Signed 424 D certification.
    - Signed matching funds certification.
    - Loan delinquency support documents.
    - Technical report for the project.
    - Fuel distribution facility feasibility/business plan (Only for fuel distribution facility projects).
    - Environmental review documents.
    - Other supporting documents.
    - Signed grant application.

3.2. Internet Browser

The online HBIIP grant application system operates best in the Google Chrome internet browser. Please use this internet browser when accessing and completing the online grant application. Please contact your organization’s information technology support group if you need assistance obtaining and installing the Google Chrome internet browser.

3.3. Confidentiality

This grant program is a competitive process. As a result, we consider your data as proprietary to your organization and the HBIIP Grant Application System will secure your application from the view of other applicants.

If it is your preference, you are permitted to use a third-party grant writer to complete your grant application. If you elect to use a third-party grant writer to complete your application, although your data will be secured within the HBIIP Grant Application System from employees of competing companies, all responsibility to ensure your third-party grant writer keeps your application data confidential is your responsibility.

4. Indicating Intent to Participate & Requesting Access

The first step to participating in the HBIIP grant program is to indicate intent to participate and request access for your company employees and third-party grant writers that will be responsible for completing the grant application using the online system. This will require some advanced preparation.

4.1. Gather the information needed

To indicate intent to participate, you will need the following information about your company:

- Your company’s legal name.
- The company’s Taxpayer Identification Number.
- The company’s DUNS Number ().
- The company’s SAM/CAGE Code ().
- The company’s Applicant Type (See Section 3.1).

Each individual needing access to the online grant application system will require a USDA eAuthentication account. USDA eAuthentication accounts can be requested at:

https://www.eauth.usda.gov/home/

To request access to the online HBIIP grant application system for the individuals that will be completing your grant application:

For each individual:

- Last name.
- First name.
- eAuthentication ID.
- Email address.
4.2. Request to Participate

1. Complete HBIIP company/account and User Creation Request shown below and available on the Higher Blends Infrastructure Incentive Program website, To Apply tab.

2. Print the request as a PDF.

3. Email the request as an attachment to HigherBlendsGrants-access@usda.gov.
The HBIIP company account and user accounts will be created and your requested users will be associated with your HBIIP company account. Each user will receive a user notification email indicating that their account has been created and a link to the online HBIIP grant application system.

Upon receiving the user notification email, the user should copy the URL link and paste it into the URL address bar in the Google Chrome browser and click enter.

4.3. User Access Next Steps

Upon approval and setup of each user’s access, each user will receive an email from the RD.AdminAppsSupport@usda.gov. NOTE: depending on a user’s specific email client settings, the email may be placed into a spam folder.

The email will provide a URL to access the system and instructions for doing so. Each user should copy the URL and paste it into the address bar of their Google Chrome internet browser and hit enter. We recommend bookmarking the URL for use should you need to access the online application system more than once.
5. Accessing the HBIIP Grant Application System

When presented with the following page, the user should enter their eAuthentication user ID and password and click Log In with Password.

After successfully authenticating, the online grant application system will display the HBIIP Disclaimer page below. Issues experienced with authenticating should be submitted to the USDA’s Rural Development Help Desk by calling 1-800-457-3642 and following the prompts.
The user must click the Finish button to access the online grant application system. Upon clicking Finish, the system will display the Application List page. A single company can only have one grant application. The page will include only the application for the user’s company. Third-party grant writers may see multiple applications for different companies if they have been engaged by more than one company to create their grant application.

To begin completing or continuing a grant application, click on the Edit button for the applicable application. The online application system will display the grant application with the Company Applicant Information tab selected.

6. Navigating the HBIIP Grant Application System

6.1. Menu Options

The online grant application system includes menu options in the form of links, forms and clickable tabs. Clicking either will display the selected page.

6.2. Required Data

Throughout the online application system, some data is required while others are optional. Required data is reflected with an asterisk on the left of the data label name. For example, Company Congressional District is required and labeled as *Company Congressional District.
6.3. Saving Your Data

Each tab of grant application information includes the data fields for describing the specific details of your grant application. In addition, each tab of information and form includes a Save button to save your data. The Save button should be used before leaving a tab or form to ensure your data is retained.

The online grant application system is designed to ensure that the user may not complete all of the grant application at the same time or by the same individual. Different individuals can work on different parts of the application concurrently, but two users working on the same data at the same time will result in the data representing what the last user to save the document entered.

6.4. Traversing the Application and Tracking Your Progress

For the most part, the online grant application can be completed in any order you wish except with regard to Project and Station/Facility information. Project information must be completed before creating and defining Station/Facility information.

An Application Overview page (see below) is included to provide you a quick method of tracking the progress of your application. The page includes all of the sections and attachments required for your application to be complete. A check mark will appear for each section that you have completed (saved the required data). When all of the sections have check marks, the Finalize Application button will be enabled.
7. Completing the Application
